Bartel Manufacturing, Inc.
301 San Andreas Street
Oakland, CA 94621

October 11
Daniel Rhee
Home Country Family Foods
175 Calle del Sol
Cupertino, CA 91031

Dear Mr. Rhee:

Thank you for your interest in Bartel's food packaging technology.

As we discussed in our telephone conversation, Certain Seal is well suited to the needs of a mid-to-large-scale food processing company. It is designed to handle large volumes and can be customized for almost any size or shape of food product.

Certain Seal also lengthens the shelf life of your products. As you know, one of the biggest causes of food spoilage is excess air left in vacuum-sealed packages. Our system is especially effective in eliminating this threat. In the September issue of Industry World magazine, comparison testing indicated that Certain Seal removed excess air more efficiently than similar vacuum packaging systems (such as the Sigillare 100 produced by TYT Industries)

Food quality is ensured further by the packaging material itself. For the Certain Seal system, we use an especially durable plastic that protects foods throughout the freezing, shipping, and reheating processes.

This is just an overview of some of the benefits of our technology. I will go into greater detail in my October presentation at your office. In order to tailor the presentation to your needs, I would like to know more about Home Country's production requirements. Please contact me at our main offices in Oakland at (510) 555-0115 between 9 AM and 6 PM.

Date: November 30

Dear Mr. Munson,

I just wanted to follow up on our phone conversation from the 27th and confirm that I will come to your residence on Saturday, December 12th with shipping boxes and packing materials. Depending on traffic, I expect to arrive at your home at 11 in the morning.

In your case, you would write “Chicago, USA.” You will also want to write “Fragile” and “Top Load” on the boxes in which you pack your ceramics and other delicate kitchenware. Remember that no loose or unpacked items can be accepted by the receiving warehouse in Chicago.

As we discussed earlier, my crew of movers will meet you at your home at 10 A.M. on January 15th to pick up your items. The delivery time to the warehouse is normally 4 days. Please do feel free to contact me with any further questions you might have.

Questions 72-75 refer to the following memo.

MEMORANDUM

To: All employees

From: Yvonne Nguyen, office manager

Subject: The Clean Earth Program

We actively encourage staff participation in our recycling efforts, “The Clean Earth Program.” Many among our staff have been involved with the program since it started nearly a decade ago, but some newer employees may not be familiar with it. To that end, I’d like to meet with everyone this Friday at 5 P.M. in Staff Room B and show you how the program works. Attendance is mandatory, and it will take about 20 minutes to run through everything.

Before we meet, there are a few things you should know. We're very lucky in that we could enlist the help of D&S Removal Services for our recycling needs. They have provided us with the big recycling container you see beside the photocopier as well as comprehensive pick-up service. You may place any recyclable items – from folders to cell phones to old printers – into this box for collection. However, we ask that you return used ink cartridges to our office manager, Marge Glowacki, for refilling. If you would like a small container to use by your desk, you can request one by calling David Lembke in custodial services at X-5822.

Through the Clean Earth program, we are striving to recycle at least 70% of our office waste. The program got off the ground when our media room librarian, Douglas Yoon, needed to dispose of 200 of our old seminar videotapes. He contacted a friend of his at D&S Removal Services, and they immediately set up the convenient pick-up program we have now. This means, by the way, that you are welcome to toss your unwanted home videotapes into the big collection box for recycling. We hope everyone will do their part in meeting our recycling goals.

Thank you!

Yvonne Nguyen
Office manager

Test products!

Earn money!

Influence business and industry!

Becoming a product tester for Market Focus Inc. is a great way to earn money, make your opinions heard, and even pick up insight into the world of market research. Here are the answers to Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) about product testing.

What kind of company are you, and what do you do?

We are a full-service market research firm that does innovative product tests for a broad range of clients including such award-winning companies as Hanson Foods. The company was founded by market research pioneers David and Beverly Clawson nearly 40 years ago. We were nearly bought out by the large firm DK Research last November, but David and Beverly instead passed Market Focus Inc. down to their sons, Jeff and Daniel. So, for us, market research remains a family affair. We are also a proud member of the National Association of Food Engineers.

I want to be a product tester. What do I do next?

Once you are registered to become a product tester for Market Focus Inc., your name will be placed on an availability list. When you are chosen for market research, you will be notified by phone or e-mail. You will then come to our facility on Logan Street to participate. Depending on the study, you may test food items, toys, cell phones, or even large appliances. To sign up with us, click the “join” link in the upper right and fill out the electronic registration form. The information you provide will go directly to our database, so note that we are not able to accept e-mailed applications.

I’ve been chosen for a product test. How does it work?

First, our recruiter will inform you how much your test pays. You will then be given the survey forms at our first floor reception area, and go to our research room across the hallway. The 200-seat eating area of this modern facility also serves as a working restaurant which is open for lunch daily from 11 A.M. to 3 P.M. Please note that you may not bring your own food and drink into the room, as it is a controlled environment. For the convenience of families, there is a children’s playroom next to the research room. Most of our tests last about an hour.

How often can I participate in product tests?

Names are chosen by a computer at random, based on factors including age and product preferences. You might participate in product tests once or twice in a short time period, and then several months will pass before your next test. Some people get called more than others, but at most you may do the tests 3-4 times a year.

I’m available for a product test. Can I call you and take part in one?

We’re afraid not. Part of market research is having a random group of participants. But please do free to call us to confirm that your contact information is up-to-date.

76. What is indicated about Market Focus Inc.?

- (A) It has always been run by the same family.
- (B) It has won several awards for its service.
- (C) It recently built a new headquarters building
- (D) It started its own professional organization.

77. How most likely would a person register to be a product tester?

- (A) By e-mailing the company
- (B) By visiting a different part of the Web site
- (C) By visiting the company in person
- (D) By phoning the company

78. The words “pick up” in paragraph 1 are closest in meaning to

Questions 96—100 refer to the following newspaper articles

Cezanta's Move

Atlanta (United News Service)—Atlanta-based Cezanta Air, the nation's number four airline, announced today that it will cut its domestic airfares significantly. The company is hoping that by offering its new promotional fare plan, the carrier will be able to increase its customer base and win a greater share of the market. The company promises to charge no more than $300 for a one-way economy ticket or $500 for a one-way first-class ticket. The new plan also includes the reduction of various ticketing fees and the elimination of several less-traveled routes at the end of this year. Cezanta hopes that these changes will raise revenue over the long term. The company is also planning to update its airplanes' interiors and redesign flight attendants' uniforms.

Buford Valley Daily News

WILL NEW AIRLINE STRATEGY FLY?

by Ken Daly

Faced with weak revenues, rising labor costs, aggressive pricing from small, discount competitors, and most notably high fuel costs, several major air carriers have struggled mightily in the past three years. They have experimented with a wide variety of marketing strategies without much success. Recently, Cezanta cut its ticket prices by nearly 50 percent. However, it is unlikely that this strategy will result in a major increase in profits for the airline, as most of the other large airlines will probably cut their prices to follow suit. Some analysts are actually expecting Cezanta's revenues to fall in the upcoming year. With fuel prices expected to continue rising and with the cost of fuel accounting for nearly 40 percent of all carriers' operating expenses, any increase in passenger traffic is unlikely to offset the decrease in ticket prices. The one sure thing is that, after December, consumers flying out of Buford Valley will no longer be able to take advantage of Cezanta's price cuts.

96. What is suggested about the airline industry?

- (A) Operating costs have recently gone down.
- (B) Smaller airlines often offer very low prices.
- (C) Ticketing fees will be eliminated.
- (D) Airlines have increased the amount spent on advertising.

97. What does Cezanta Air plan to do?

- (A) Reduce the number of its international flights
- (B) Expand its service on less-traveled routes
- (C) Eliminate business-class and first-class seating
- (D) Modernize the inside of its aircraft

98. What does Mr. Daly suggest?

- (A) Other airlines will try to match Cezanta's prices.
- (B) Smaller airlines will be bought by their larger competitors.
- (C) Cezanta's revenues will increase right away.
- (D) Passengers' opinions influence aircraft design.

99. According to analysts, what is the industry's greatest challenge?

- (A) Outdated equipment
- (B) Rising fuel costs
- (C) Customer satisfaction
- (D) Improving safety

100. What can be inferred about Buford Valley?

- (A) It is close to Atlanta
